Conference Site Connection and Testing: <http://webcast.bcm.edu/txch/transitions18/player.html>

There will be two broadcast options, YouTube or Live Stream. Both options will display the audio, video, and slides concurrently. There will not be any telephone feeds. Choose the most optimal streaming option for your site by testing each using the instructions below.

Testing Instructions

1. YouTube
  - a. Click on the site connection link above
  - b. Click on “Watch live via YouTube” at the bottom of the page. If the test video plays, this option works for you.
2. Live Stream: The live stream will only play during the conference.
  - a. Mark your calendar to perform a live stream test on Wednesday, September 20, 2017 or Thursday, September 21, 2017, between 9:00 am – 4:00 pm (CST).
  - b. Click on the site connection link above
  - c. Click the “Play” icon. If the live stream works during the testing window, you will be able to receive the conference broadcast signal at the time of the conference.
