

Congress, don't cut my lifeline.

Right now a Congressional supercommittee is considering making a deal that could jeopardize the lives of the most vulnerable by cutting Medicaid. More than a quarter of all older Americans and people with disabilities depend on Medicaid for long-term services. Cuts could deny millions the choice to receive the services they need to live independently in their homes and communities. These cuts could cost thousands of direct-care jobs, putting a greater burden on individuals and families. Contact Congress today and demand they not cut long-term services millions of seniors and people with disabilities depend on. Call 1-888-885-1750 now.
