

Building a Movement to Advance Self-Determination: Michigan Partners for Freedom Local Leaders

Angela Martin, LMSW

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

Who is Michigan Partners for Freedom?

Michigan Partners for Freedom is a grassroots coalition of people with disabilities, family members, advocates, organizations and other allies working together to build statewide demand for self-determination.

Who are Local Leaders?

People with disabilities who direct their community mental health services based on the principles of Self-Determination and train others about self-determination and how it applies in their lives.

How do Local Leaders Advance Self-Determination?

Local Leaders inform people with disabilities and the community about the movement of Self-Determination and how to direct one's services and supports using Person Centered Planning, Individual Budgeting, and Fiscal Intermediary Services.

Michigan Partners for Freedom is supported by a grant from:

For more information visit the MPF website: <http://mifreedom.org>