The Association of University Centers on Disabilities (AUCD) is a diverse network of people with disabilities, families, educators, researchers, advocates, and professionals.

AUCD is a strong presence in every U.S. state and territory, and grows leaders who have the skills to make a difference throughout the world.

In partnership with people with disabilities, AUCD promotes inclusion, dignity, respect, equity, justice, health, and well-being across the lifespan in all communities.

WEBSITE  NEWSLETTER  LISTSERV  SOCIAL MEDIA
Welcome to the AUCD Emerging Leaders Community! Every year, we welcome thousands of Emerging Leaders to the network that share all AUCD members’ commitment to civil rights and social justice. We are excited to have this space just for you!!

The AUCD Network is proud to be your professional home – a place where you can learn about the issues, connect with others, get involved, and grow as a leader, with the ultimate goal of positively impacting the lives of people with disabilities and their families.

On the left, listen to some members of the AUCD Emerging Leaders Community share their thoughts on the importance of interdisciplinary training, how they are using their experiences to make an impact, and how being a part of the AUCD network has influenced their pursuit of personal and professional goals.
