

Learn how you can improve the lives of young adults with IDD and mental health service experiences.

What is this study about?

- This is about “Truth and Reconciliation.”
- We will learn about past mistakes in research and how to overcome them.
- We want to help young adults with intellectual/developmental disabilities (IDD) and mental health service experiences, their families, and researchers work together.

Who can participate in this study?

- Young adults with IDD and mental health service experiences.
- A family member of a young adult.

What will happen in this study?

- Attend 2 meetings with other young adults and family members (3 hours each).
- During the meetings you will learn about research and share your ideas.
- You will receive a $25 gift card.
