

CED LAUNCHES NEW DISABILITY MICRO-CREDENTIALS/BADGES FOR FACULTY AND STAFF

September 1, 2022

A new micro-credential (badge) available at West Virginia University focuses on disabilities and disability services and supports within the university setting.

Specifically designed for faculty, instructors and staff from any university, this badge series provides information you may choose to use for:

- Enhancing your classroom environment and course experience for students.
- Enhancing your clinical/professional first impressions with patients and clients.

Go to the micro-credential website for more information about this series. Individuals may seek one or more badges within the series.

If you have any questions about the series or process, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Lesley Cottrell.
