

End of the Year Webinar: What's Next?

ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY CENTERS ON DISABILITIES
RESEARCH, EDUCATION, SERVICE

AUCD

Association of University Centers on Disabilities

The Journey

Start your
Traineeship

- Learn what it means to be an AUCD Trainee

Mid-
Traineeship

- Engage in disability-related activities

End of your
Traineeship

- Learn how to use your experiences
- Prep for the next steps!
- Careers
- Continued Education

Presented by

Liz Koss, MOT, OTR/L,
Virtual Trainee
Nisonger Center,
Ohio State University

Sheida Khamsi, MEd,
Assistant Virtual
Trainee, Kansas
University Center for Developmental Disabilities

Christine Liao, MSW,
Program Specialist,
Association of University Centers
on Disabilities

Connection to AUCD

John Tschida, MPP

Associate Executive Director for Research and Policy,
Association of University Centers on Disabilities

- Stay involved!
- Stay on the listserv
- Come to our conferences
- Consider running for our Board at some point
- Use the network for professional growth

Employer Perspective

Douglene Jackson, PhD, OTR/L, LMT

Co-Director, University of Miami, Mailman Center for Child Development

- Leveraging your experiences from an employer perspective

A Panel on How to Use Your Experiences

Stephanie Weber, PsyD, Training Director
Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center

T. Rene Jamison, PhD, LEND Research Director
Kansas University Center on Developmental Disabilities

Laurel Steedman, MHA,
Waiver Administrator
Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities

How did you market your experiences on your resume and when explaining it to a potential employer?

Be sure to include...

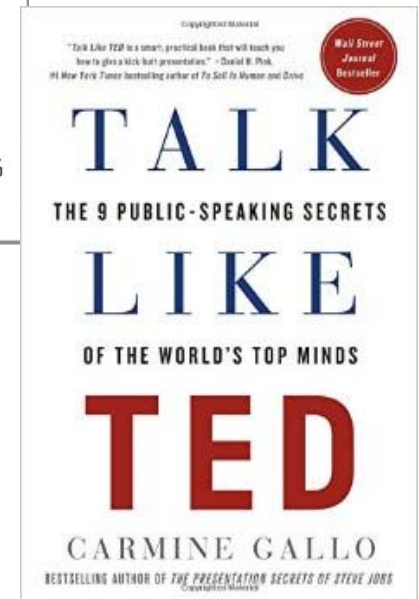

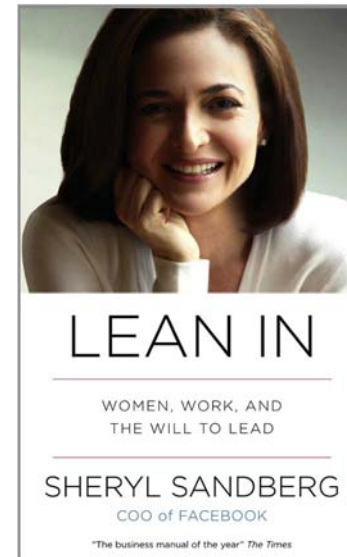

- Internships
 - Publications
 - Presentations
 - Posters
 - Leadership Project Involvement
 - Organizations, SIG's, Councils
 - E-Portfolio
 - Conferences attended
 - Certificates/Awards
 - Community service
-
- These components should be ordered by importance based on the position or opportunity you are applying for!

What resources do you find were or are helpful in using your experiences and preparing for your future?

Recommended Resources:

- Lean In by Sheryl Sandberg
- Books by Simon Sinek
(Start With Why, Leaders Eat Last)
- Talk Like TED by Carmine Gallo
- Books and materials related to having difficult conversations

Stay Connected

- @AUCDNews on Twitter
- AUCDnetwork on Facebook
- Trainee listserv
- Policy InBriefs
- SIGs
- AUCD Conferences
 - Annual conference in the fall
 - Disability Policy Seminar in the spring
- [Free webinars at \[aucd.org/webinars\]\(http://aucd.org/webinars\)](#)

Wrap-Up

Questions?

We have answers!

Email Christine Liao at cliao@aucd.org or the Virtual Trainee at virtualtrainee@aucd.org

Reminders

- Remember: This webinar has been recorded and will be archived.
- Submit your proposal to present your work at AUCD Conference 2017 before June 1st
 - Be on the look out for conference scholarship opportunities!
- Consider applying to review proposals for the AUCD Conference 2017
 - Email Crystal at cpariseau@aucd.org by May 19th
- Consider applying for the Division of Maternal and Child Health Workforce Development for a fall 2017 practicum/internship experience
 - Deadline is May 8th at 11:59pm.
 - Email SCroffut@hrsa.gov with questions
- Prepping for an additional traineeship year?
 - Watch for information on leadership opportunities such as the Trainee Liaison, Assistant Virtual Trainee, or Virtual Trainee

Congratulations!

Thank you for your commitment and dedication to advancing policy and practice for and with individuals with developmental and other disabilities, their families, and communities.

AUCD

Association of University Centers on Disabilities