

AUCD - Driving Change Session 4

Navigating Change by Identifying Needed Supports for Successful Community Living

Sunday, December 4, 2016 9:00 am - 11:00 am Location: Congressional Hall A

Presenter(s)

- Amy Hewitt, PhD. Institute on Community Integration, Minneapolis, MN
- Matthew Wangeman, MCP. Institute for Human Development, Flagstaff, AZ
- Rachel Patterson, MPA. Christopher and Dana Reeve Foundation, Washington, DC
- Christina Espinosa, MRC. Human Development Institute, Lexington, KY

AGENDA

9:00-9:30 Welcome, Session Introduction and Panelist Questions

9:30-10:30 Facilitated Round Table Discussions

Discussion Questions:

- How is your state doing?
- Where do people with intellectual and developmental disabilities live? Work? Do during the day?
- Are people with intellectual and developmental disabilities living and participating in their communities?
- What can you do in your current role to drive change in your state and community to address the challenges and seize the opportunities you heard from the panelists that will result in people living and participating in their community?
- What is your most creative, new, exciting, concrete idea and related actions that will drive change toward community living and participation for all people with IDD in your state or community?

10:30-11:00 Report Out from Each Table

- What is the most creative/exciting idea from the discussion that will drive change in your state or center

11:00 Adjourn