The 2022 Emerging Leaders Map will focus on Resiliency and Self-Determination.

Resiliency means being able to keep going after hard or challenging things happen. Another word for resiliency is “strength.” Self-determination means choosing your path or goals in life. We all want to choose something in our lives that makes us happy or helps us reach our goals. Self-determination is when you can make those choices for yourself.

Please answer the following questions based on this year's theme. Please limit your responses to no more than five sentences for each question.

* 7. What does resiliency mean to you?

* 8. What does self-determination mean to you?

* 9. How can we support people in our lives to help them be resilient and promote self-determination?

* 10. What are you doing within your center/program to support resiliency and self-determination?
