during times of chronic and terminal illness, or severe disability. Accompanying CD-ROM contains electronic forms from Manual. www.aaid.org

- The Thinking Ahead, My Life At The End project was developed through a focus group made up of individuals with developmental disabilities. Advocates from three California Regional Centers: Alta California, Eastern Los Angeles, and Golden Gate, came together to talk about healthcare treatment and related end of life decisions. They shared about what was important to them and what they would need to make informed end of life decisions. The workbook and DVD contains words, symbols and pictures that facilitate discussion and decision-making regarding individual values, goals, and treatment preferences at the end of life. The Workbook and DVD are both available in three languages [English, Spanish and Chinese] free of charge through the California Coalition for Compassionate Care - www.finalchoices.org. Digital PDF workbooks are available through California Department of Developmental Services - www.dds.ca.gov/ConsumerCorner/Home.cfm.

- NYSARC, Inc. Advocacy Monograph Number 4
2008 - A collaborative project of NYSARC, Inc.; Hospice and Palliative Care of New York State; and Office of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities The monograph represents a collaborative effort among professionals from the hospice and palliative care, developmental disabilities, legal and psychotherapy perspectives to offer a wide range of information. The monograph offers a cross systems training approach that enables staff in developmental disabilities agencies and staff in hospice and palliative care agencies to understand each other's systems and to build a team approach. Organizational and personal issues are addressed to help increase access to hospice and palliative care for people with developmental disabilities. To obtain a copy of the monograph, contact the NYSARC, Inc. State Office at 518-439-8311 or by email at info@nysarc.org
