

AGENDA
Joint Interdisciplinary Training Meeting
 February 13th, 2011
 Marriott Wardman Park, Wilson A/B
 8:00 am – 1:00 pm

7:30	Continental Breakfast
8:00	Welcome and Meeting Overview Meeting Goals: 1. Promote a shared understanding of life course theory/perspective across interdisciplinary training programs. 2. Consider current strengths and gaps in interdisciplinary training programs related to LCT/perspective. 3. Share strategies for incorporation of LCT/perspective within interdisciplinary training and collaboration among training programs. 4. Determine what is needed to enhance and expand strategies for integration of new LC knowledge within interdisciplinary training programs.	Jamie Perry Holly Grason
8:10	MCHB Updates	Laura Kavanagh Wendy Adam
8:40	Presentation Getting on the Same Page: Life Course "Cliff Notes"	Amy Fine
9:00	Facilitated Discussion Focus: Consider current strengths and gaps in interdisciplinary training programs related to LCT/perspective	Wendy Adam
9:15	Panel Presentation/Q&A Sharing Progress: Models of Incorporating LCT/Perspective into Training Programs	Lois McCloskey Betsy Haughton Karen Edwards
10:00	Break

10:15	Small Group Discussion Discussion questions: 1. Discuss how training programs incorporate (or are thinking about incorporating) life course theory/perspective into interdisciplinary training. 2. What are some strategies for collaboration among interdisciplinary training programs around LCT/perspective? Strategies for collaboration with community partners, including Title V? 3. How do we measure the application of LCT/perspective in our training programs? Where is it captured in the current performance measures? What might a new LC performance measure look like?	Groups
11:15	Report Out	Groups
12:00	Lunch and Wrap-up: What's Next? Focus: What collaborative steps can/will our programs and MCHB commit to in order to enhance and expand strategies for integration of new LC knowledge within interdisciplinary training programs?	Holly Grason Jamie Perry
1:00	Meeting Adjourns	