

UNIVERSAL DESIGN FOR LEARNING RESOURCES

Name of Resource: Universal Design for Learning (UDL) At a Glance Videos

Organization: National Center on Universal Design for Learning

Website

URL: http://www.udlcenter.org/resource_library/videos/udlcenter/udl#video0

Brief description of the resource: This site provides a playlist of relatively short video introductions that explain the “who”, “what, and “why” of Universal Design for Learning.

Name of Resource: Policy Foundations of Universal Design for Learning

Organization: National Center on Universal Design for Learning

Website

URL: http://www.udlcenter.org/sites/udlcenter.org/files/Hehir_Policy_Foundations_of_Universal%20Design_for_Learning_0.pdf

Brief description of the resource: This paper provides the historical context surrounding the implementation and rationale for Universal Design for Learning. The author explains how policies, such as IDEA and Section 504, resulted in the development of the UDL movement and additionally, it discusses the promises and future implications of utilizing UDL.

Name of Resource: UDL in Higher Education

Organization: UDL on Campus

Website URL: http://udloncampus.cast.org/page/udl_about#.WC3OJmUcX2Q

Brief description of the resource: This website focuses on implementing UDL in higher education, as a way to serve students with different learning styles, backgrounds, languages, etc. Furthermore, it discusses how UDL creates access for students as well as aids in the retention of students.

Name of Resource: UDL Professional Learning Services

Organization: National Center on UDL

Website

URL: http://www.udlcenter.org/implementation/professional_learning_services

Brief description of the resource: This page gives information and resources for educators and professionals on how to become more familiar and comfortable with implementing UDL in their learning environments and curriculums.