An African-American woman with short hair wearing a purple top and a wheelchair with an Asian-American female doctor in a white lab coat.

Getting the COVID-19 vaccine is good for your health because it will reduce your chances of getting sick. Especially if you have a pre-existing condition Blind Hispanic man with a guide dog wearing dark glasses and a
A red checkered shirt walks into a doctor's office with an Asian-American female doctor in a white lab coat.

And getting vaccinated will also protect the health of those around you. Standing in a line a blind middle-aged white woman with a cane, an Indian-American man wearing a blue jacket and a red tie, and an Asian-American female doctor in a white lab coat.
African-American boy with a prosthetic leg. Ask your teacher doctor or a close family member where you can get vaccinated.

Asian-American female doctor standing in a room with graphics to her right. For more information head to www.covid-resources.org. Get the COVID-19 vaccine. It's good for your health.