

Name/Address/Email	Best times to reach us	Family Members	About us	What is important? What we can share, what we can teach
John and Mary Smith 124 Main Street Madison, WI 53555 jms@hotmail.com	Best times: after school (4pm) weekdays, evenings, weekends, maybe some holidays.  Best times to call: evenings, and usually Mon&Wed ams.	Dad: Mom: ____, age 19, Asperger's syndrome ____, Sister, age 17	____ is a sophomore @ ____ High School. ____ currently works 4 hrs @ _____ doing _____ hopes it will turn into paid job! Would be great to have a male role model to do physically active things with—tossing football or running or playing tennis	How a family with kids with minor disabilities bond & support each other. How to love your child through challenges. Can share the process right now of helping ____ transition into work world, and also helping become more organized with school work.
Jane Doe 567 Elm Street Madison, WI 55555 jd@hotmail.com	We'll all do our best with what times work both for family & student. Best times: Mon-Fri after school or weekends too. Best times to call: after 6 to 8 pm nights	Mom ____, Duchene Muscular Dystrophy, age 13 ____, Brother, age 10 ____, Sister, age 15 ____, Brother, age 18	____ is shy at first. Nice! "Slower" in school. Power w/c, muscle weakness. Enjoys sports, movies, plays PSII, plays w/c sports (baseball, hockey, soccer, bowling)  Extracurricular activities: _____ _____	Diversity—one child w/special needs and 3 others without. Complexity—school, social, medical, community aspects Involvement—in many outside interests/leisure & the obstacles that arise to be smoothed over for fun to prevail. What life is like outside of, & in addition to just clinic appts. with Health Care folks.

Family Mentor Roster—2005