On October 28, 2016 there will be a virtual dialogue on Promoting Inclusive Career Pathways. We hope that you will join this very important discussion. In addition please spread the word.

The LEAD Center is currently developing strategies and practices to promote the full inclusion of people with disabilities, and others who face barriers to employment, in inclusive career pathways initiatives. In support of this effort, the LEAD Center is currently hosting the national online dialogue, Promoting Inclusive Career Pathways.

Over the last week, nearly 200 participants provided 40 ideas, 161 comments and 233 votes on ways to increase access to career pathways for people with disabilities. The results of this virtual discussion will play an integral role in informing the LEAD Center’s work.

The Promoting Inclusive Career Pathways National Online Dialogue runs until Friday, October 28, 2016. We hope you will join this important conversation and help spread the word to other participants who may be interested.
