On average, over the past five years, the national network of UCEDDs

- Provided professional preparation for working in the disability field to over 2,000 students annually.
- Provided technical assistance and training each year to over one million health, education, mental health, and policy-making professionals, as well as people with disabilities and their families.
- Provided direct (clinical or other) services to more than 700,000 individuals with developmental disabilities and/or their families annually.
- Conducted nearly 3,000 research projects each year whose results may benefit people with disabilities.
- Developed and disseminated over 7,000 different publications annually to bring the most current information to professionals and the community.
