

Why And How To Engage Families as Presenters in Training for Health, Education, And Law Enforcement Community Partners

LEND Family Discipline Network

Why 21st Century Training Models Can Benefit From Involving Individuals With Disabilities And Their Families As Presenters

Part 1

Family Involvement in Training

Part 2

Medical Students and Physicians

“Family Teams” Of Young Adults With Disabilities And Their Parents And Siblings As Trainers For Medical Students And Family & Community Medicine Residents

Barbara Levitz, MS Ed

Mitchell Levitz

Westchester Institute For Human Development And New York
Medical College/ UCEDD & LEND NY

Educators and School Administrators

Family Involvement in Training for Educators/ School Administrators

Fran D. Goldfarb, MA, MCHES, CPSP

USC UCEDD Children's Hospital of Los Angeles-UCEDD
& LEND CA

Law Enforcement Community Agencies

Using Social Stories in the Training of Emergency Responders on Interacting with Young Adults with Autism

Caitlyn Freeman

Dori Ortman, CC

LEND Center of Pittsburgh

Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC
LEND PA

Law Enforcement Community Agencies

Adults with Disabilities and their Parents as Panelists in Training Police and Corrections Officers

Mark A. Smith, M.S.

Munroe-Meyer Institute for Genetics and Rehabilitation

University of Nebraska Medical Center- UCEDD & LEND NB

Law Enforcement Community Agencies

Creating a Family Business to Train Law Enforcement Professionals

Linda V. Russo, MA Ed

Civitan International Research Center and Sparks Clinics

University of Alabama at Birmingham-UCEDD & LEND
AL

BREAK OUT GROUPS

Part 3
