

Collaborative Strategies for Success: Healthcare and Educational Interventions for Children Impacted by Substance Exposure

In-Person Conference!
November 7, 2025
Cincinnati Children's - Location S

PRESENTED BY NEXT STEP COLLABORATIVE

REGISTRATION OPEN!

Save the Date to join us for a day of learning current research and strategies to provide caregiver supports and intervention strategies for children with prenatal substances exposures or parental substance use disorders. Presented by The Next Step Collaborative, continuing education credits will be offered for a variety of professions. Next Step Collaborative is a community coalition of professionals and family members who focus efforts on education, research and advocacy to support children and families impacted by substance use disorders.

Who should attend?

Anyone working to support children and families in this space! This may include:

- Clinical Counselors
- Early Education Specialists
- Guardian ad Litem
- Lawyers
- Nurses
- Nurse Practitioners (NPs)
- Occupational Therapists (OTs)
- Peer Support
- Physical Therapists (PTs)
- Physicians
- Physician Assistants (PAs)
- Psychologists
- School Administrators
- School Psychologists
- Social Workers
- Speech-Language Pathologists (SLPs)
- Teachers

Why Attend?

- Knowledge Exchange: Engage with leading experts and fellow professionals.
- Interprofessional Networking: Forge connections across disciplines.
- Empowerment: Strengthen your skills to make a difference.
- Community Impact: Contribute to positive change.

For information about continuing education credit and registration, visit www.cincinnatichildrens.org/NextStep

